Part I and Part II Crime Statistics

Part I UCR index incidents are reported in two categories: violent and property crimes. Aggravated assault, forcible rape, murder, and robbery are classified as violent offenses while arson, burglary, larceny-theft, and motor vehicle theft are classified as property crimes. Part I crimes are collectively known as Index crimes as these crimes are considered quite serious in nature, tend to be reported more reliably than others, and are reported directly to the police.

Part II Offense categories represent a multitude of less serious offenses and are tracked as follows: simple assault, quality of life offenses, forgery and counterfeiting, disorderly conduct, driving under the influence, drug offenses, fraud, gambling, liquor offenses, offenses against the family, prostitution, sex offenses, stolen property, criminal mischief, weapons offenses, and all other offense classifications.

Many factors may contribute to fluctuating levels of Part I and II offenses. These factors include weather, economic conditions, unemployment rates, alcohol and drug abuse, proactive community policing and enforcement initiatives, new technologies, proactive investigative and patrol presence and increased citizen crime prevention efforts. The following Tables represent a five year Part I and Part II crime comparison from 2010-2014 and historical comparisons of Part I and Part II offenses from 1980:

Incidents and Calls for Service

In 2014, members of the Port Jervis Police Department investigated 13,283 incidents representing a 17.3% increase from 2013. Incidents or calls for service are generated by civilian reports or through proactive policing strategies. When an incident is reported, communications personnel generate a blotter report. Blotters generated for police service range from youth related calls, disturbances, crimes in progress to suspicious subjects. Statistical analysis of departmental computer records indicates that the hours from 12:00pm-10:00pm statistically generate the highest volumes for calls for service with the specific hours of 8:00pm-10:00pm being statistically the busiest. General disturbances, domestic incidents, larcenies, auto accidents, and youth related calls for service are the top five incident types generated by civilian reports to the Port Jervis Police Department.

The following represents a five year comparison for incidents reported in the City of Port Jervis:

PJPD IMPACT STATISTICS

An analysis of incidents reveals that the City's Second and Fourth Wards account for 78.9% of all calls for service. Graph #2 provides an image of calls for service for each City Ward. In an attempt to reduce this disparity, a temporary patrol post was created in 2014 for officers assigned to the afternoon shift consisting of overlapping neighborhoods located in the 2nd and 4th Wards between the areas of Fowler Street, Jersey Avenue and East Main Street. Officers assigned to this post are tasked to provide proactive, high visibility patrol and community policing techniques to improve the quality of life for our residents in these patrol areas.

ADULT ARRESTS BY AGE GROUP

PJPD IMPACT ARREST STATISTICS

A review of arrest statistics provided by the Department of Criminal Justice Services for criminal offenses reveals that persons ages 25-29 are statistically involved the highest incidents of arrests. The State of New York is reviewing the feasibility of increasing the age for arrest and processing in the adult criminal justice system from 16 to 18 years of age. An additional 28 persons were arrested age 16 and 17 in 2014 for various offenses. Raising the age and diverting these cases to the Family Courts will have an impact on cases assigned to the Department's Juvenile Aid Detective and may necessitate the adding of a second juvenile officer to process these highly specialized cases.

Domestic Violence

Combatting domestic violence continues to be a priority for the Port Jervis Police Department. In 2014, Officers responded to 454 domestic incidents representing a 5% decrease from 2013. Of these calls for service, a total of 180 penal law offenses occurred in 2014 representing a 13.9 % increase from 2013. Increased departmental training, participation in the Orange County Domestic Violence Criminal Justice Task Force and enhanced community partnerships and collaboration with Safe Homes of Orange County and Orange County Child Protective Services has proven to be effective tools to combat this problem.

In 2014, the Department participated in a ride-along program with Safe Homes of Orange County partnering police officers with Safe Homes Advocates to conduct field patrols. This program is designed to increase collaboration and awareness between the Port Jervis Police Department and Safe Homes of Orange County to foster an improved response to domestic violence in our community. In addition, the department directly provides copies of all domestic incident reports to our local Safe Homes of Orange County advocate and provides support to Safe Homes of Orange County initiatives including the Clothesline Project and Domestic Violence Awareness Month to increase public information pertaining to this serious societal concern. In 2014, Safe Homes of Orange County awarded the Family Justice Award to Chief of Police William Worden in recognition of a commitment to victims of domestic violence and their families and for providing leadership to end domestic violence in the Port Jervis community.

Graph #4 represents domestic violence Offenses from 2010-14 while Graph #5 represent a breakdown of specific domestic violence offense types that occurred in 2014.

Crime Prevention & Outreach – Building Partnerships and Solving Problems

Providing crime prevention and community outreach is an essential component of our overall crime reduction strategy. Crime Prevention Officers and rank and file police officers work closely with community organizations and our thriving neighborhood watch groups to provide valuable crime prevention information and awareness to our community partners.

Building partnerships fosters trust and enables effective problem solving. Officers routinely attend and participate in community events to provide positive outreach and build partnerships. In 2014, Officers attended and participated in over 124 community-based meetings, events and internship programs. Officers routinely attended community meetings, school and educational events including career days and youth safety lectures. In addition, officers are extremely active during their off-duty hours in youth and community oriented groups, coaching and in religious based organizations. By proactively promoting community partnerships, crime prevention, and supporting our community at various outreach venues, officers are given the opportunity to reduce barriers and improve communication with our residents leading to improved police services and a better quality of life for our community. Refer to Annex “A” for a summary of events attended.

Port Jervis Neighborhood Watch

Public safety is a community responsibility shared by our police officers, various public and human service organizations, businesses, non-profit groups and most importantly, our local citizens. Neighborhood Watch groups are an effective crime prevention organization that promotes positive approaches to improving public safety and the importance of observant citizens reporting suspicious activities. Developing a relationship with Neighborhood Watch helps strengthen the community and is vital for improving the quality of life for our residents. Knowledge is power and an observant, well informed citizen is a powerful crime prevention tool. Citizens of all ages can do their part by remaining vigilant and reporting criminal activity and the conditions that breed crime and disorder in their neighborhoods.

Neighborhood Watch groups are actively organized in the 3rd and 4th Wards while many watch members participate in the program throughout the city by utilizing their neighborhood watch identification numbers to report suspicious activity. The strong partnership that exists between watch members and the officers of the Port Jervis Police Department is a crucial element in the City’s on-going efforts to promote police/citizen relations, promote crime prevention activities and improve the quality of life for our community.

information by street throughout the City of Port Jervis. Timely crime reporting for residents promotes increased awareness and vigilance for our citizens who effectively serve as the eyes and ears of their local police department.

Operation PJ Pride: Community Drug Abuse Task Force

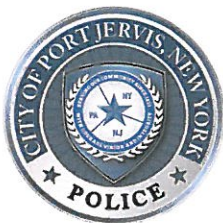

Created in 2012 resulting from a community crime prevention forum sponsored by the PJPD and the PJ Neighborhood Watch pertaining to the Prescription Pain Medication and Opiate Abuse Epidemic, Operation PJ Pride, under the leadership of Pastor Robin Martineau of the Wickham Church and local community organizers Valerie Maginski, Anne Horsham, and Jack Austin, has successfully evolved as a viable community organization participating in several key community events to promote drug abuse awareness and prevention. Operation P.J. Pride has established a goal to solicit future grant funding under the Drug Free Communities Support Program to combat substance abuse in the City of Port Jervis. In 2014, Ms. Valerie Maginsky graciously accepted the commitment to lead Operation PJ Pride with an energetic commitment to continue to work in partnership with various community organizations to promote awareness and education to battle drug abuse in our community.

A major goal for Operation PJ Pride is to submit a funding request under the Drug Free Communities Support Program (DFC). This Federal grant program that provides funding to community-based coalitions that organize to prevent youth substance use. Since the passage of the DFC Act in 1997, the DFC program has funded nearly 2,000 coalitions and currently mobilizes nearly 9,000 community volunteers across the country. The philosophy behind the DFC program is that local drug problems require local solutions. With a small Federal investment, the DFC program doubles the amount of funding through the DFC program's match requirement, to address youth substance use. Recent evaluation data indicate that where DFC dollars are invested youth substance use is lower. Over the life of the DFC program, youth living in DFC communities have experienced reductions in alcohol, tobacco, and marijuana use.

Now, more than ever, the DFC program is needed in communities across the country to help prevent drug use and reduce its consequences. Drug problems manifest in local communities and show up in our schools, churches, health centers, and in our homes. The DFC program helps local leaders organize to identify the youth drug issues unique to their communities and develop the infrastructures necessary to effectively prevent and respond to the disease of addiction. With a potential grant award of up to $125,000 per year for five years, a successful future grant application will greatly enhance community based collaboration to fight drug abuse and promote awareness, prevention and treatment within our community.

National Night Out Against Crime Celebration

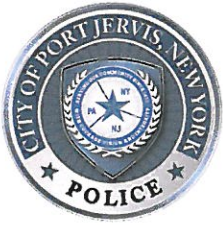

The Port Jervis Area National Night out against Crime Committee held our 8th annual National Night Out celebration at beautiful Riverside Park located in the City of Port Jervis. Our event in 2014 was attended by over four thousand people and sixty community based organizations. A Port Proud to Be Drug Free March was held prior to the event with several hundred participants.

National Night Out Against Crime, which is sponsored by the National Association of Town Watch and co-sponsored locally by the City of Port Jervis Police Department, is held on the first Tuesday of August and involves more than 15,000 communities from all 50 states with over 37 million participants. This event is designed to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness, generate support and participation in local anti-crime efforts, strengthen neighborhood spirit and police/community relationships, and send a strong message to criminals that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

National Night Out is a celebration of our community's commitment to improving the quality of life for our residents, especially our youth, through the promotion of positive, healthy life styles. This can only be accomplished through building strong partnerships between the community, local health and human service providers, faith based organizations, local businesses, schools, civic organizations and the law enforcement community. Crime, drug abuse, and disorder are a community problem, and together, we can effectively address the needs of our community. We are confident that we can make a difference and send a clear message that we are united, we are strong, and that we are committed to making the Tri-State community a safe and healthy place to live and raise our families. National Night Out has proven to be an effective, inexpensive and enjoyable family oriented program to promote neighborhood spirit and community partnerships in our fight for a safer community. The community benefits of this event extend well beyond the one night and throughout the year!

Port Jervis / Deerpark Police Department Joint DARE Program

The Port Jervis Police Department, Town of Deerpark Police Department and the Port Jervis City School District continue to provide a multi-agency Drug Abuse Resistance Education Program (DARE) for all 5th grade students that attend Anna S. Kuhl and Hamilton Bicentennial Elementary Schools. This partnership is a result of the elimination of the School Resource Officer position within the school district resulting from budget cuts, and was scheduled to begin during the 2012-2013 school year. In addition, DARE Officer Scott Robertson and Middle School Health Teacher Rick Graham provide a refresher Drug Abuse Awareness Program for 8th Grade Students at the Port Jervis Middle School.

Officer Robertson and Det. Stanley Buczek have received additional training courtesy of a grant provided by Catholic Charities to instruct in a new prevention program called "Too Good for Drugs and Violence". This ten week program allows officers and alcohol and drug prevention specialists to enter our schools to teach an evidence based ten week program designed to reduce drug abuse in violence. The department will continue to work with our partners at the Port Jervis School District, the Orange County Alcohol and Drug Abuse Council, Operation PJ Pride and Catholic Charities to bring this valuable prevention program to the Port Jervis Middle School and provide prevention education to all 8th grade students.

are a small sample of the positive outreach services that our juvenile unit provides to build positive relationships and educate our city's youth to help them grow into healthy, productive adults.

Legislation is currently being debated to increase the age of adult criminality from 16 years of age to 18 years of age. The goal of this legislation is to provide intervention and diversion services to offenders age 16 and 17 as those offenders currently under the age of 16 and subject these offenders to the juvenile justice system. In preparation for these changes, it will be necessary for the City to continually review the current Juvenile Aid Bureau operations, increased youth related criminal activity, and investigate the feasibility of assigning a second juvenile detective or police officer to the Juvenile Aid Bureau to adequately address the projected increase in cases anticipated by offenders ages 16-17. Please refer to the 2014 Juvenile Aid Bureau Report for specific information.

Training and Education

Quality training is essential to foster continuous improvement and growth of a professional law enforcement organization and the officers who are sworn to protect and serve our community to excel as officers and as an organization. We must continually build upon the strong capacity of our officers and the organization as a means of meeting the service demands of our community and the complex problems and challenges that our officers confront on a daily basis. An investment in training assures that our officers possess the tools necessary to meet and exceed the demands placed upon them.

Utilizing in-service training, department instructors, on-line training, shift training, training bulletins and outside professional training venues, officers and civilian staff of the Port Jervis Police Department were provided an array of vital training in 2014 to increase professionalism and the level of service provided to the public. arms qualifications and training during the department's on-going qualifications and tactical training program.

Major Projects

In-Car Cameras:

- Installed In-Car Digital Camera Recording Systems in all primary marked patrol cars utilizing funding secured in the 2013 Serial Bond to provide an increased mechanism to gather evidence and to protect officers from liability. Testing, training and policy development began during the latter portion of 2014 and will continue in 2015 to ensure the technology is used efficiently and effectively to promote increased public safety.

Enhance Emergency Radio Communications

- Utilizing funding secured in the 2013 Serial Bond to improve emergency portable radio coverage, an extensive radio communications upgrade was completed in 2014 that added repeater receiving and transmission units on Park Avenue, Port Jervis Municipal Building, Bon Secours Community Hospital and the Route 209 Port Jervis City School District Campus to improve both car and portable radio communications in the West End, our local hospital and area school buildings.

Long Term Goals and Initiatives

Enhance the Safety of our Community, Promote a Proactive, Innovative and Efficient Organization and Enhance Community Partnerships through:

1) Continue to work towards obtaining Accreditation through the State of New York.

- Accreditation is a progressive and contemporary way of helping police agencies evaluate and improve their overall performance by providing formal recognition that an organization meets or exceeds general expectations of quality in the field. Accreditation acknowledges the implementation of policies that are conceptually sound and operationally effective to meet the following four principle goals:
 - ✚ Increase the effectiveness and efficiency of law enforcement agencies utilizing existing personnel, equipment and facilities to the extent possible;

- ✦ Promote increased cooperation and coordination among law enforcement agencies and other agencies of the criminal justice services;
- ✦ Ensure the appropriate training of law enforcement personnel;
- ✦ Promote public confidence.

- The program is comprised of 133 standards and is divided into three categories; Administrative, Training, and Operations. Obtaining accreditation through the NYS Division of Criminal Justice Services is an extremely rigorous practice.

2) Enhance the Safety of Our Community

- Prioritize Adequate Patrol and Investigative Shift Staffing to sustain optimal levels of officer safety and encourage a proactive level of community policing and law enforcement services; proactively address quality of life issues, violent crime, property offenses and narcotics offenses at identified hot spots and other locations throughout the City, and deploy increased foot and bicycle patrols to support community policing in these targeted neighborhoods.

3) Maintain Civilian Clerk-Dispatch Program

- Enhance department service delivery, supervision and problem solving efforts through the continued training and deployment of part time civilian dispatchers, deployed sixteen hours a day, seven days each week. Civilian dispatchers have relieved shift sergeants from dispatch/central communication duties to focus their efforts and talents on shift deployments, community policing, problem solving, and enhanced supervision. Dispatchers were deployed during designated weekend overnight shifts during busy weekends and holidays which has been cost effective and beneficial. The ultimate goal of the program is to evolve into a 24 hour a day/7 day a week civilian dispatch program.

4) Provide Quality Training

- Continue to provide quality training for officers and civilian support staff to improve employee and team growth and provide effective community policing and problem solving services and utilize department trainers to teach at the Police Chief's Training Academy of Orange County to improve their instructor skills and abilities. A high degree of training equates to excellence and professionalism in service and improved quality of life for our residents.

- Continue to build strong partnerships and improve trust with our community through tireless outreach, crime prevention, community awareness and collaboration to address quality of life concerns, engage in problem solving, and to reduce criminality in our community.
- Participate in Orange County District Attorney's Office Drug Task Force and join our local and county partners to make a regional commitment to aggressively investigate and prosecute persons responsible for the illicit sale of narcotics in our city and county.
- Assign an officer to the Orange County Child and Sexual Abuse Task Force to assist with providing enhanced services to the City and the County with investigating and reducing the victimization and neglect of our young citizens. The salary of an officer assigned to this unit would be covered by the county. These funds would allow the City to hire replacement officer at a much cheaper cost while enhancing our organizational capacity to proactively respond and investigate these types of cases.
- Continue to work with our partners at Operation PJ Pride, the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Council of Orange County, Catholic Charities and the Port Jervis City School District to launch the "Too Good for Drugs" education program at the Port Jervis Middle School to teach students to learn what it takes to stay on course toward a well-designed future. Social and Emotional Learning skills are put to work to build self-esteem, self-efficacy, and expectations for the future as students learn to set and reach goals, make responsible decisions, identify and manage their emotions and the emotions of others, learn effective communication skills, and build positive pro-social relationships. Students also learn about the effects of Alcohol, Tobacco, Marijuana, and Prescription Drug abuse on the developing teenage body and brain. Students explore how goals, peers, media, and family influence their decisions and apply problem solving skills to identify healthy alternatives to drugs.

6) Youth Police Academy

- Explore the development of a week-long youth police academy in partnership with the Port Jervis Recreation Department to educate our youth in the importance of discipline, education, respect, partnerships, community, school, family, living healthy, drug abuse and violence prevention and provide positive re-enforcement, direction and role models with members of the education field, law enforcement, government and the community.
